

I am writing in regards to K-LOVE radio. My family listens to it everyday either in the car or at home. My church family listens to it as well, daily. The station is a true source of encouragement and inspiration. It is very positive and beneficial to all ages. The music and testimonies shared on the aire give life to all who listen.